WHAT FITS IN A 1-INCH AD?

The column width for all Daily Journal publications is 2.875". A 1-inch ad gives you room for a one-line heading, four lines of text and one line for contact information. The best way to know how many words you can include in one inch is to send us your ad text by email to classifieds@dailyjournal.com. We will format your ad and return a proof and cost estimate. Then you have the chance to make changes. Your ad doesn't run until you approve ad text and cost.

BLIND BOXES: Maintain confidentiality. Responses emailed as they are received. $50/fee

LOGOS AND ARTWORK: We can include your company logo in your advertisement if transmitted by email as an eps, tif, pdf or jpg file.

You may provide your entire advertisement as a pdf or our art department will create an ad for you at no additional charge. Please allow at least one additional day for advertisements with artwork.
